MESSAGE FROM MAYOR LENARD KWASNY

On behalf of the Town of Onoway Council, it is with a heavy heart that I say Goodbye to long time residents, community members, and former Councilmen, George Jendyk, Al Watson, and County Councillor Steve Hoyda.

REST IN PEACE GENTLEMEN

May has been a month of big changes and much activity.

Council would like to welcome Interim CAO Tim Duhamel, and thank Bloom CME Inc., for providing Interim Administrative services and guiding us through the process of recruiting a new CAO. We would also like to thank Mayor Choy and CAO Tom Goulden (both from the Town of Stony Plain) for all their assistance during this transition.

THANK YOU ALL!!!

As I write this message, I am sure that the Onoway Heritage Society is extremely busy planning and organizing, along with many other groups, Onoway Heritage Days events scheduled for June 10th, 11th, 12th, 2022. It looks like this is going to be a very full weekend that will be enjoyed by all. Hope to see you all out and about, having fun with family, friends, and neighbours.

Last, but certainly not least, to every kind of Dad, HAPPY FATHERS DAY!!

Len

Taxes will be due AUGUST 31, 2022

There has been a delay in the tax assessment process. Notices should be mailed out in the upcoming weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MICHELLE GALLAGHER, Q.C.

Town of Onoway Council and Administration staff congratulate Michelle Gallagher of Patriot Law, Onoway on being honoured with the title of Queen's Counsel

Appointees who receive the Queen's Counsel designation help set the standard for service to Albertans through the justice system.

This prestigious designation being awarded to Michelle shows that you don't have to work in downtown Edmonton or Calgary to be successful - there are opportunities in rural Alberta. Small towns like Onoway are great places to live, work, and grow!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2022 GRADS

Town Council and Staff wishes you success in all of your future endeavors

ATTENTION: ONOWAY BUSINESS OWNERS
